Greetings from Julie G...

"And now we welcome the new year, full of things that have never been"--Maria Rilke

Your Libros president here, saying Happy New Year. No celebrations in person at the January meeting, heh? If you haven't heard, there was a police presence at Manzano Mesa MG Center on our meeting day. We were locked out of the building and the parking lot. I called them Monday, they are all good; but it started before they opened so they couldn't call me or anyone else. Not much I could do. No alternate meeting rooms, no phone tree. BUT, tremendous thanks to Syd Lord who got an email out lickity split. Maybe you're like me, not looking at gmail while driving. It is what it was: something completely different. "Things that have never been"

Let us proceed with the Libros new year, adapt and get on with it.

And make your tags! I'm talking to myself...

See you soon,
Julie Goodding - LIBROS President

THIS MONTH'S PROGRAM. THANKS!

Please Note: Originally this was the program for the January meeting. Due to a break-in at the Manzano Mesa Center, the January meeting was cancelled.

CREATE GLASS EMBELLISHMENTS for Paper & Book Arts!
Let's make a handful of fun paper/glass pieces for bedazzling.
We will also create a couple of Valentines (it is that time... already!) and a tiny book or two.

Materials/Tools Needed: Scissors, 3-D Puffy Dots, Bone Folder,
Two Permanent Glue Sticks, Double Stick Runner Tape, Small
Cutting Surface, Xacto Knife

Anne Engelhardt Bio: "What do I love more? Paper or Polka

Dots? I think it depends on the day" Working with my hands is my meditation. As long as I can remember, I have been a maker-- my appreciation and fascination for the decorative arts/crafts runs deep.

As a serial entrepreneur (emphasis on serial), combined with a passion for design and making, I have had the great fortune to earn a living doing what I love. I am an art school drop-out who went on to start, operate and, in some cases, sell the following businesses: AE Design, Papers!, Books by Hand, Solum World Paper, Paper Palette, PaperGami, Craft Fantastic and Creative Culture. In the nineties, I taught book art workshops across the country. In the first decade of this century, I worked in product development internationally. Overall, my life has been spent with paper and all things paper related!

I am still doing CRAFT FANTASTIC and dabbling at LOST IMAGE BINDERY. Lately, I have been digitally obsessed with vintage, public domain images and digital collage.
